

"We wanted to get away from the ocean and change location. We always would go to Atlantic City. We were referred by a friend in Harrisburg area."

Tyler was a major reason we chose Genesis-friendly and knowledgeable. The price was right.

"Price was very important for us because a variety of people go on our trip."

Mitch Supernant
York and Capital Region

"Having a friend familiar with the organization and Tyler as a trip manager reassured us the most about Genesis."

"The biggest difference from our past providers was location. The ocean was always too close."

"Everything was great, but certain amenities in the hotel would have been great. Courses were very nice."

